

Attention all Ladies in HVAC!

Would you like to be part of a strong organization of women? Would you like to gain more knowledge about the products and services that are available in HVAC? Would you like to network with other women in our industry? Then you should join the Women in HVAC Chicagoland Chapter! We are looking to meet quarterly to promote and educate all of our members.

Please join us for cocktails and appetizers at our meeting on Monday February 1, 2010 from 6-8pm in Arlington Heights, at The Birch River Grille (75 West Algonquin Road, Arlington Heights, IL 60005). The event is being sponsored by Milwaukee Valve, your source for valves and actuated controls that meet all of your process-automation needs. Ryan Ohm, Regional Manager for Milwaukee Valve will be presenting. During the second part of our evening, there will be a self-defense demonstration! Dennis Cook from Degerberg Academy will be there to promote awareness and teach some very important self defense moves. Free for members and $25.00 for non-members. Please RSVP by Wednesday January 27, 2010 to WHVAC-Chicago@hotmail.com.

We welcome everyone to join! To become a member, please contact us at WHVAC-Chicago@hotmail.com at your earliest convenience. Memberships are an annual fee of $75.00 and are valid from now until September 2010. Renewal notices will be sent to coincide with the National Chapter. Memberships include: Quarterly Meetings, discounted rates for any extracurricular activities, membership to national organization, access to National Convention in September, member contact list, ability to become a mentor or mentee to other women in the chapter, access to job board postings, and the chance to make a lot of friendships!
